Emperor William Will Not Permit Von Caprivi to Carry Out His Threat.

GONE TO SEE THE KAISER.

Caprivi Summoned to the Shooting Lodge at Hubertusstock—Gossip About the Crisis. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

BERLIN, March 20.—Since the fall of Bismarck, two years ago, the political tension here has not been so intense as it has been to-day.

Early this morning Chancellor Von Caprivi was summoned by a special messenger to the Emperor at Hubertusstock, and after a long conference with the monarch, he returned to the city. The Emperor, it is said, has refused to accept the Chancellor's first resignation and the Chancellor has made a second request to be allowed to retire. Albert von Levetzow, First President of the Reichstag, says that Caprivi believes he has not been treated fairly by the Emperor and should, therefore, insist upon being allowed to retire. At the Emperor's urgent request he had committed himself without reserve to the school bill, as it stands, and had placed behind it the weight of his whole authority, both as Prussian Minister-President and as Chancellor of the Empire. Despite this, the Emperor, without any previous notice, had changed his attitude to the bill, thus leaving him (Caprivi) in the lurch. This, the Chancellor said, was a direct affront to him as the chief adviser of the crown, and he would not be considered as a mere tool. He showed conclusively that his usefulness in office was at an end.

Despite the deficiencies of this declaration, it is believed in parliamentary circles that the Emperor and Caprivi will ultimately be reconciled and that Caprivi will remain in office. However, a similar request and reconsider his resignation. The Emperor's wish that Caprivi should reconsider his resignation, and the fact that the Emperor has not yet accepted his resignation, is a matter of great importance. The Emperor's wish that Caprivi should reconsider his resignation, and the fact that the Emperor has not yet accepted his resignation, is a matter of great importance.

NONE TO TAKE HIS PLACE.

There is radical objection to each of those mentioned for the office. Henningens, who was suggested, appears already to be out of the race. Herr Miquel, speaking to a Liberal Deputy last evening, said that Henningens would not be considered as a possible successor. The Emperor "would not tolerate the leaving of the Ministry with Liberalism." Among the likeliest candidates whose names are mentioned are Lucanus, Rauchhaupt, Elzenburg and Levetzow. All are strong Conservatives. Dr. Lucanus has long been a favorite with the Emperor. He has conducted the Empire's foreign policy since the Emperor's accession, and has been an unofficial, though confidential, adviser. He has no military experience, but is a sound statesman, and a person of influence. The Emperor's wish that Caprivi should reconsider his resignation, and the fact that the Emperor has not yet accepted his resignation, is a matter of great importance.

GREAT RELIGIOUS AWAKENING.

Franklin, Pa., in the Throes of a Revival that Causes Business to Be Forgotten.

FRANKLIN, Pa., March 20.—This city is now in the throes of a religious revival. A series of meetings are being held in nearly every church in the city and up to date there have been over 500 conversions. At the Evangelical Church alone 130 converts have been added to the membership, while the churches are crowded at every meeting and interest is unabated. As a result of the several revivals first-class theatrical performances are being given at the houses and all other entertainments are neglected; business is being forgotten and meetings are held at all hours of the day and night.

Miss Nelson, the Fair Orator, Given an Ovation on Her Return Home.

Close of the Winter Term—Arrangements for Lectures and Musicals—Preparations for Base-Ball and General Field Exercises.

DE PAUW UNIVERSITY.

The Fair Orator Honored by Students and Faculty—Lecture and Athletics. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

GREENCASTLE, Ind., March 20.—Miss Nelson, of DePauw University, winner of the pennant at the State oratorical contest, has been the recipient of marked honors since her return from the capital city. She was received at the depot by a large number of students, and the firing of cannon and music by the band. On reaching her home her overjoyed friends were made partners of her hospitality, and the evening was spent in a very enjoyable manner. Her appearance at chapel, Tuesday, was the signal of another outburst of enthusiasm, of which the DePauw well served as an appropriate cap-sheaf. President John and wife gave a reception in her honor Tuesday evening which was attended by a large body of students. This was followed by the Alpha Phi reception, Thursday afternoon, at Women's Hall. The fair orator received these several ovations with becoming modesty, regarding them not as personal compliments, but demonstrations in honor of the victory achieved by DePauw University. She will go to Minneapolis with the hope and belief of her friends that she will soon be laureate laurel await her on the 4th of May.

The musical entertainments of the week at DePauw were no less varied than attractive. Wednesday evening a popular concert was given, for the benefit of the pianoforte club. The vocal numbers were rendered by Misses Myrtle and Stella Grubb, Pauline Blake, Inez Faria and Lena Davis. The pianists were Flora Mathia, Nellie Bolton, Florence Ayres, Clara Wilson and Esther Levings, together with the piano-forte quartet, in which the four performers played on equal terms. The following were the soloists: Thelma Burmeister, Susan Kelly, Anna Smith and Eleanor Moore. The mandolin music was equally excellent, and the recitations by Miss Alice Hays Weik and Miss Jessie Cowgill merited the hearty plaudits accorded them. The three hundred and seventy-five students who attended Friday evening by Miss Dahl's pupils, and that of Miss Burmeister's pupils closed the week's entertainments. The term will take place to-morrow (Monday) evening.

Professor Manning lectured this afternoon, taking for his subject "A Glimpse at the French." The theological students are to be congratulated on another course of lectures, the first of which will be delivered on the evening of the 24th inst. Rev. R. M. Mohr, D. D., of Minneapolis, will inaugurate the series by a lecture on "The Ministry." The remaining lectures will be delivered during the week, and the dates remain to be designated. The following will be the order of their delivery: "The Ministry," Rev. H. A. Hulse, D. D., of Chicago; "The Ministry and the Study of Literature," Rev. H. A. Cleveland, D. D., of Indianapolis; "The Ministry and the Study of Music," Dean Howe, DePauw University; "Church, Religion and Architecture," Rev. H. A. Hulse, D. D., of Indianapolis; "The Ministry and the Social Problems of the Day," Rev. W. K. Halstead, D. D., of Bloomington. The series of lectures on "The Ministry" is a most timely and valuable one, and is being attended with great interest.

Despite the continued cold weather the athletic spirit is abroad among the students and gives promise of good gains during the approaching season. The board of directors of the Athletic Association has elected Fred Ritter as foot-ball manager and Ralph Darnall as manager of the tennis team. The following interfraternity games have been arranged for to-morrow: Phi Gamma vs. Delta Upsilon, and Sigma Nu vs. Phi Psi.

Dr. John went to St. Louis yesterday, and preached there to-day.

Miss Kelly, who is the successor of Miss Kelly in the School of Music, is now installed as professor of piano-forte, harmony, counterpoint and fugue. The closing lecture in the university course will be delivered next Friday evening by Dr. A. A. W. of the School of Theology, is dangerously ill.

Mr. Will Walker, of Indianapolis, will take the 100 yard race in the spring "Martha" to be rendered by the School of Music on the 10th inst.

The sophomore class have adopted blue caps as their head-gear.

Dr. Martin is unable to hear his classes on account of an affection of the ears. Visitors during the week: H. W. Wise '91; Mrs. Guy Walker, of Terre Haute; Isaac Dunn, with his son, and Mr. Harding, of Wabash, with his sister.

NOTICE DAME.

Hugh O'Donnell, as Richard III, the Best Amateur Ever at the University. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NOTICE DAME, Ind., March 20.—St. Patrick's day was celebrated at the university with a series of events that have never been achieved here in dramatics. Each literary society in the university has a particular day in which to distinguish itself—the Phi Caelians "Founder's day," the Philodemics, Washington's birthday, and the Columbians, St. Patrick's day. But the production of "Richard III," which was the play given, was not the only feature of the day. The Sorin Hall Glee Brigade made its first appearance, and the drilling was loudly applauded. The military companies went through the beautiful ceremony of dress parade and then, as a fitting close, came the entertainment by the Columbians. This was by no means the least of the worthy success that has ever been achieved here in dramatics.
